

What are Multiple Intelligences?

It has been claimed by some researchers that our intelligence or ability to understand the world around us is complex. Some people are better at understanding some things than others.

Instead of having one intelligence, it is claimed that we have several different intelligences. They are listed below:

- Kinesthetic Body Smart
 - You will enjoy sports and are good at swimming, athletics, gymnastics and other sports
- Linguistic Word Smart
 - You will enjoy reading, writing and talking about things.
- Logical Number Smart
 - You will be good at mathematics and other number activities; you are also good at solving problems.
- Interpersonal People Smart
 - You will like to mix with other people and you will belong to lots of clubs. You like team games and are good at sharing
- Intrapersonal Myself Smart
 - You will know about yourself and your strengths and weaknesses. You will probably keep a diary.
- Musical Music Smart
 - You will enjoy music and can recognize sounds, and timbre, or the quality of a tone.
- Visual/Spatial Picture Smart
 - You will be good at art and also good at other activities where you look at pictures like map reading, finding your way out of mazes and graphs.
- Naturalistic Nature Smart
 - You will like the world of plants and animals and enjoy learning about them.
